Here I will explain some explanations, namely: 1. About Japan 2. Japanese script 3. Introduction to Japanese 4. Greeting to friends Oke direct aja, First About Japan Japan or generally called nippon and Nihon is an island state in East Asia. At the end of the Pacific Ocean and Japan, surrounded by several countries such as China, Korea, and Russia, the national anthem of Japan is Kimigayo, which means that his majesty's rule will last forever, the government in Japan is a constitutional monarchy in which there is the power of an emperor who is limited and reduced only in the performance of official duties. Japan does not celebrate Independence Day, but has a unique event that is the anniversary of the legend of Emperor Jimmu. Japan Has a flag that we know a red circle in the middle of a white field, this flag has the name Hinomaru, which means circle of the sun. The flag of Japan Hinomaru. Japanese script comes from the Chinese script introduced bada fourth century A.D. previously, the Japanese society had no own writing system of Japanese script, which was divided into 3 parts, namely kanji (derived from China). The hiragana script of the Katakana script is secondly based on kanji and was developed in the eighth century AD by Buddhist clergy to pronounce Chinese characters. NEXT Introduction to Japanese The part I like most about learning Japanese, namely introduction maybe I will write some of the dialogues that I still remember he. Because when I was in class XII, There was no Japanese class because of KBM (Teaching and Learning Activities), which was cut off by street vendors. Okay early morning: Ohayou Gozaimasu Noon: Konnichiwa Night: Konbanwa 2. Conversation / Dialogue Introduction Eg this is still Noon, and this in the first class you have to do that is to greetings say and it's morning, day and night you must say it A: Konnichiwa minna san (Good afternoon all) After greetings directly start introducing yourself, example A: Wata washI Zatnika Bandon (Bandung) Kara kimashita, WataShinodie wa citrawas ni arim arim onegaishimasu. Meaning: (My name is Zanika, comes from Bandung, my house in Ciwastra, thank you in advance). The province I know in Japanese is Sorry just a little wkwkw West Java: Nishi East Java Java: Higashi Java Jakarta. Jakarta Bali: Bari So If Suppose someone lives in the West, central and eastern areas, just add these words aja West: Nishi Tengah: East Chubu: Higashi If West Kalimantan so Nishi Kalimantan, etc. Greeting to friends - Friends Well, this is no stranger to you, the greeting, the time yes want lessons do not start greeting first wkwkwkw, good for greeting in Japanese I will explain and give an example to all of you well rich, I have explained for the time of morning, Tomorrow: Ohayou Gozaimasu Siang: Konnichiwa Night: Konbanwa Live Greeting his, that's more or less like this: If you only master doang A: Konnichiwa Sensei .). Means: Good morning, teacher/ teacher. If Temen A: Konnichiwa (friend's name) Desu. Meaning: Good day (friend's name). If his Temen Much A: Konnichiwa Minna-san. Means: Good morning all. If Nanya messages him, more or less his dialogue as follows: A: Ogenki Desu ka? B : Hello, Genki desu Means A: Is it good? B: Yes, I'm good news.
